GREAT OUTPOURING

The special train bearing Governor Haskell and party arrived at Ada over two hours behind time Tuesday evening. However, despite this delay and the chilly atmosphere, crowded streets, greeted the arrival of the governor. The people cheered and the band played as Gov. Haskell appeared, and he soon commenced his address from the porch of Cha-man Hotel, and faced a great throng that lined 12th and Broadway streets in every direction.

Chairman Thompson of the Democratic Central Committee, with several other distinguished democrats, accompanied Gov. Haskell, as also did his wife, and Mrs. Haskell was the recipient of much attention from the ladies, and especially the gallant old ex-Confederates.

Gov. Haskell had to cut short his speech because of the delay in his arrival, but he forcefully presented the excellent record of the democratic administration, 'uring its short incumbency, producing comparative figures to prove the greater assessment of corporate wealth, railroads, etc., with lower rate of taxation, than under republican rule during Territorial days.

Gov. Haskell also paid his respects to President Roosevelt and Candidate Taft, and urged that 'a rousing majority be given to the great leader of democracy, Wm. J. Bryan, whose chances for election were flattering.

The governor made a plea for the socialists to join the democrats in defeating republicanism, because they had no show of victory and whatever strength they possessed and cast for Debs, to that extent indirectly aided in the election of Taft.

The many excellent and telling points by the governor brought forth tumultuous cheering, and his speech made a most favorable impression. It benefited the democratic party and strengthened the governor with the people of Pontotoc county, where he already had legions of friends.

Gov. Haskell was presented to the vast audience by Hon. J. W. Bolen in a most charming and eloquent manner, as could only be expected from this gifted orator of Ada.

NIGHT RIDER CONFESSES.

Tells About the Killing of Tennessee Attorney.

Tiptonville, Tenn., Oct. 27.—"Tid" Burton, self-confessed night rider, told a remarkable story today of night rider depredations in the vicinity of Reelfoot Lake, confessing to the part he played in the outrages which reached a culmination in the putting to death of Capt. Q. Rankin, a prominent attorney of Trenton, Tenn., on the banks of the lake a week ago, tonight and implicating men prominent in this section of the state. Of the number he declares had a part in the killing of Capt. Rankin, more than half are now in custody at Camp Nemo, the military base near Samburg. The confession was made at the jail here to Sheriff Haines of this county. Judge Harris, owner of a large tract of land in the Reelfoot Lake district, who has suffered much at the hands of the riders, and Mayor Cleveland Donelson of Tiptonville.

The confession was made freely and voluntarily, with no offers of a lessened punishment or threats, and apparently without a quail of conscience he glibly unfolded his story.

While Burton denies that he was present when Capt. Rankin was put to death, he admits that it was through information given by him that the band congregated and secured the attorney while he slept at the hotel at Walnut Log. According to Burton's confession, Tom and Garrett Johnson, under arrest, and William Watson, under bond in connection with another raid, were the leaders of the lake band.

GREAT OUTPOURING

The special train bearing Governor Haskell and party arrived at Ada over two hours behind time Tuesday evening. However, despite this delay and the chilly atmosphere, crowded streets, greeted the arrival of the governor. The people cheered and the band played as Gov. Haskell appeared, and he soon commenced his address from the porch of Chas. man Hotel, and faced a great throng that lined 12th and Broadway streets in every direction.

Chairman Thompson of the Democratic Central Committee, with several other distinguished democrats, accompanied Gov. Haskell, as also did his wife, and Mrs. Haskell was the recipient of much attention from the ladies, and especially the gallant old ex-Confederates.

Gov. Haskell had to cut short his speech because of the delay in his arrival, but he forcefully presented the excellent record of the democratic administration, during its short incumbency, producing comparative figures to prove the greater assessment of corporate wealth, railroads, etc., with lower rate of taxation, than under republican rule during Territorial days.

Gov. Haskell also paid his respects to President Roosevelt and Candidate Taft, and urged that a rousing majority be given to the great leader of democracy, Wm. J. Bryan, whose chances for election were flattering.

The governor made a plea for the socialists to join the democrats in defeating republicanism, because they had no show of victory and whatever strength they possessed and cast for Debs, to that extent indirectly aided in the election of Taft.

The many excellent and telling points by the governor brought forth tumultuous cheering, and his speech made a most favorable impression. It benefited the democratic party and strengthened the governor with the people of Pontotoc county, where he already had legions of friends.

Gov. Haskell was presented to the vast audience by Hon. J. W. Boien in a most charming and eloquent manner, as could only be expected from this gifted orator of Ada.

Tells About the Killing of Tennessee Attorney.

Tiptonville, Tenn., Oct. 27.—"Tid" Burton, self-confessed night rider, told a remarkable story today of night rider depredations in the vicinity of Reelfoot Lake, confessing to the part he played in the outrages which reached a culmination in the putting to death of Capt. Q. Rankin, a prominent attorney of Trenton, Tenn., on the banks of the lake a week ago, tonight and implicating men prominent in this section of the state. Of the number he declares had a part in the killing of Capt. Rankin, more than half are now in custody at Camp Nemo, the military base near Samburg. The confession was made at the jail here to Sheriff Haines of this county. Judge Harris, owner of a large tract of land in the Reelfoot Lake district, who has suffered much at the hands of the riders, and Mayor Cleveland Donelson of Tiptonville.

The confession was made freely and voluntarily, with no offers of a lessened punishment or threats, and apparently without a qualm of conscience he glibly unfolded his story.

While Burton denies that he was present when Capt. Rankin was put to death, he admits that it was through information given by him that the band congregated and secured the attorney while he slept at the hotel at Walnut Log. According to Burton's confession, Tom and Garrett Johnson, under arrest, and William Watson, under bond in connection with another raid, were the leaders of the lake band.

GREAT OUTPOURING

The special train bearing Governor Haskell and party arrived at Ada over two hours behind time Tuesday evening. However, despite this delay and the chilly atmosphere, crowded streets, greeted the arrival of the governor. The people cheered and the band played as Gov. Haskell appeared, and he soon commenced his address from the porch of Chalmers Hotel, and faced a great throng that lined 12th and Broadway streets in every direction.

Chairman Thompson of the Democratic Central Committee, with several other distinguished democrats, accompanied Gov. Haskell, as also did his wife, and Mrs. Haskell was the recipient of much attention from the ladies, and especially the gallant old ex-Confederates.

Gov. Haskell had to cut short his speech because of the delay in his arrival, but he forcefully presented the excellent record of the democratic administration, during its short incumbency, producing comparative figures to prove the greater assessment of corporate wealth, railroads, etc., with lower rate of taxation, than under republican rule during Territorial days.

Gov. Haskell also paid his respects to President Roosevelt and Candidate Taft, and urged that a rousing majority be given to the great leader of democracy, Wm. J. Bryan, whose chances for election were flattering.

The governor made a plea for the socialists to join the democrats in defeating republicanism, because they had no show of victory and whatever strength they possessed and cast for Debs, to that extent indirectly aided in the election of Taft.

The many excellent and telling points by the governor brought forth tumultuous cheering, and his speech made a most favorable impression. It benefited the democratic party and strengthened the governor with the people of Pontotoc county, where he already had legions of friends.

Gov. Haskell was presented to the vast audience by Hon. J. W. Boien in a most charming and eloquent manner, as could only be expected from this gifted orator of Ada.

Tells About the Killing of Tennessee Attorney.

Tiptonville, Tenn., Oct. 27.—"Tid" Burton, self-confessed night rider, told a remarkable story today of night rider depredations in the vicinity of Reelfoot Lake, confessing to the part he played in the outrages which reached a culmination in the putting to death of Capt. Q. Rankin, a prominent attorney of Trenton, Tenn., on the banks of the lake a week ago, tonight and implicating men prominent in this section of the state. Of the number he declares had a part in the killing of Capt. Rankin, more than half are now in custody at Camp Nemo, the military base near Samburg. The confession was made at the jail here to Sheriff Haines of this county. Judge Harris, owner of a large tract of land in the Reelfoot Lake district, who has suffered much at the hands of the riders, and Mayor Cleveland Donelson of Tiptonville.

The confession was made freely and voluntarily, with no offers of a lessened punishment or threats, and apparently without a qualm of conscience he glibly unfolded his story.

While Burton denies that he was present when Capt. Rankin was put to death, he admits that it was through information given by him that the band congregated and secured the attorney while he slept at the hotel at Walnut Log. According to Burton's confession, Tom and Garrett Johnson, under arrest, and William Watson, under bond in connection with another raid, were the leaders of the lake band.
